

MUIR REPORT:

MOB PSYCHOSIS FOR THE MASSES

Understanding politics is easy if you use organized crime as your template. The country is divided into several crime families, The Texas mob run by the Bushes, The Chicago mob run by the Obamas, the California mob run by the Browns and the New York mob controlled by the Trumps, formerly run by the Cuomos. Each state has several ways to make money, armament manufacturing, food sales, oil and timber, finance etc. Each crime boss gets to "dip his beak" as we say in Jersey, into the operation of all these industries. They call it taxes...It's the cost of doing business.

In order to boost income, these crime bosses who used to take bribes for letting illegitimate businesses, like gambling, prostitution and dope operations, legalized these activities as a better way to tax or "get a taste" of the profits, instead of risking exposure by taking a suitcase of cash in a motel room.

It's every mobster's dream to launder money legitimately. It also leaves the politicians with more time to extort donations from overseas operations, under the guise of Foundations to help the poor, while pocketing the proceeds. The job of the federal government is to keep these profits flowing by what ever means necessary. If armament sales are lagging, start a war, if oil sales are lagging, frack and sack, if the finance industry steals too much money, make the taxpayer bail them out.

This all dovetails nicely with The Media as they are also controlled by the mob. Their job is to keep us at each other's throats so donations keep coming in for elections, the blue team versus the red team, the Genovese family versus the Bonnano's. Keep the suckers scared and they will voluntarily send in their extortion money for fear of reprisals by the other side. The church sanctifies the process by making the preposterous sound mundane, like casually mentioning that the war criminal, George Bush, was being called back to his heavenly father's side. The police are the soldiers, tasked with keeping the people fearful and protecting turf.

Congress consists of the lieutenants, the top earners for the bosses. If you get elected enough, follow orders, and earn your "bones", by voting to get someone killed, (via war or intervention) you become the equivalent of a "made man" in the mob. Examples of made men are Senators Diane "Sleepy" Feinstein, Mitch, "the Turtle" McConnell and John, "the Jaw," McCain.

Everything works like a finely tuned machine, until someone attracts too much attention to the process, like Mr. Trump, "Capo de tutti Capo." He is the present day John Gotti, a greedy, big mouthed, egotistical, headline grabbing buffoon, who threatens the flow of money. When this occurs, the consiglieri, or mob lawyer, calls a sit down, among the bosses, to iron things out.

Nancy, "the mouse" Pelosi, the speaker of the house, is in charge of keeping peace among the mobsters, to ensure the flow of money. If no agreement can be made, reformers start to pop up, like Ms. Alexandria Ocasio Cortez. They report back to the public about the corruption. Grand Juries are formed, calls for investigations proceed, shedding light on the roaches hiding in the cabinets. There are only two possible outcomes, the offending Don decides to keep his mouth shut, or the same fate that befell Joey Gallo and John Gotti will happen to Trump, at the hands of the other crime bosses.

There's too much money at stake.

PRESIDENT PELOSI-

IT HAS COME TO OUR ATTENTION THAT A NEW STANDARD OF POLITICAL REFORM AND GOVERNMENTAL CHANGE IS EVOLVING.

A UNILATERAL DECLARATORY REPLACEMENT OF AN ELECTED REPRESENTATIVE AS ENACTED BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS ADVANCED THE PRECEDENT THAT IT IS APPROPRIATE AND JUST TO REPLACE AN EXECUTIVE HEAD OF GOVERNMENT PERCEIVED TO BE ILLEGITIMATE BY A PERCENTAGE OF THE POPULATION.

WE THEREFORE ENACT THESE POWERS AND DECLARE:

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES HAS DEMONSTRATED AN INABILITY TO ARTICULATE RATIONAL POLICY THAT ADVANCES THE HEALTH, WELLBEING, AND SAFETY OF THE POPULACE, AND HAS DAMAGED THE PROGRESS OF NATIONAL PRIORITIES AND INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS.

AND THE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES HAS ABROGATED HIS SWORN TRUST BY HIS CLOSE ASSOCIATION WITH AND CONTINUED ACQUIESCENCE TO PRESIDENTIAL PREROGATIVES THAT ARE DETRIMENTAL TO THE FUNCTION AND FORM OF GOVERNANCE.

ACCORDINGLY

BOTH ARE UNFIT AND ILLEGITIMATE AND THEREBY HAVE VACATED THEIR OFFICE. BY CONSTITUTED AND LAWFUL SUCCESSION BE IT PROCLAIMED THAT THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS:

Nancy Patricia D'Alesandro Pelosi IS THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Will The Teens Save Us?

Every year, before I teach 1984 to my seniors, I run a simulation. Under the guise of "the common good," I turn my classroom into a totalitarian regime; I become a dictator. I tell my seniors that in order to battle "Senioritis," the teachers and admin have adapted an evidence-based strategy, a strategy that has "been implemented in many schools throughout the country and has had immense success." I hang posters with motivational quotes and falsified statistics, and provide a false narrative for the problem that is "Senioritis." I tell the students that in order to help them succeed, I must implement strict classroom rules. They must raise their hand before doing anything at all, even when asking another student for a pencil. They lose points each time they don't behave as expected. They gain points by reporting other students. If someone breaks the rule and I don't see it, it is the responsibility of the other students to let me know. Those students earn bonus points. I tell students that in order for this plan to work they must "trust the process and not question their teachers." This becomes a school-wide effort. The other teachers and admin join.

I've done this experiment numerous times, albeit not consecutively, and every year I have similar results. This year, however, the results were different. This year, a handful of students did fall in line as always. The majority of students, however, rebelled. By day two of the simulation, the students were contacting members of administration, writing letters, and creating protest posters. They were organizing against me and against the admin. They were stomping the hallways, refusing to do as they were told.

The President of the SGA, whom I don't even teach, wrote an email demanding an end to this "program." He wrote that this program is "simply fascism at its worst. Statements such as these are the base of a dictatorship rule, this school, as well as this country cannot and will not fall prey to these totalitarian behaviors." I did everything in my power to fight their rebellion. I "bribed" the President of the SGA. I "forced" him to publicly "resign." And, yet, the students did not back down. They fought even harder. They were more vigilant. They became more organized. They found a new leader. They were more than ready to fight. They knew they would win in numbers.

I ended the experiment 2 days earlier than I had wanted because their rebellion was strong and overwhelming. For the first time since I've done this experiment, the students "won."

Teenagers will save us. So, just like Emma Gonzalez, my students did not back down nor conform. They fought for their rights. They won. And, adults can learn a lot from the teens of this generation. While the adults are complacent, jaded, and disparaged, teenagers are ignited, spirited, and take no prisoners. Do not squander their fight; they really are our future. Do not call them entitled; that entitlement is their drive and their passion. Do not get in their way: they will crush you.

Foster their rebellion. They are our best allies.
